Polo at Panama-Pacific Exposition Excites Interest.

Letters telling of the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco speak of the keen interest in polo. The following will be of interest to Honoluluans.

"Polo enthusiasm is growing apace as the opening of the six-weeks' tournament of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition draws near. It is a safe prediction that thousands of people from all parts of the country will succumb to the thrills and fascinations of the ancient Tibetan sport for, beginning on March 15, games by some of the best teams in the United States will be played at least three times each week at the exposition field.

"More than a dozen teams have entered already, such as Cooperstown, Philadelphia Country Club, Riverside, army teams from Fort Sam-Houston, the Presidio of Monterey and Texas City, Onawentia, Coronado, Meadowbrook, Santa Barbara and Pasadena, with such distinguished players in their ranks as Devereux Milburn, 'Pad' Rumsey, Thomas Driscoll, Lieut. Lewis Brown, Rene La Montagne, Hugh Drury, Walter Hobart, Perry Beadleston, Lowber Stokes and others whose names are words with which to conjure in polo circles.

"Many of the players will be accompanied by their wives, for such entertaining will not stop in San Francisco's most exclusive smart set. Some of those who are already in California or are en route here are: Mr. and Mrs. Watson Webb of New York, the latter of whom was Miss Electra Havensmeyer; Charles Rumsey, familiarly known as 'Pad,' with Mrs. Rumsey, who was Miss Mary Marriam; Mr. and Mrs. Russel Grace of New York; Devereux Milburn and Mrs. Milburn, who was Miss Steele of New York, a daughter of Charles Steele, the partner of Pierpont Morgan, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Fleischmann of Cleveland."

two of the modern dances. The foxtrot seems to be the most popular of the one-step dances and the hesitation is unexcelled for the waits.

The Outrigger Canoe Club is now being used more for entertaining, both on a large and small scale, than at any other season. With the warmer months the club becomes more popular and dancing is often seen on the cement under the hau tree pergolas.
